Second Annual Church Musicians Workshop Coming to Nashotah House in June

NASHOTAH, WISCONSIN, (February 14, 2017) – Drawing on the great liturgical and musical heritage that Nashotah House is known for, the Church Musicians Workshop is a unique week-long residential course for musicians, clergy, and lay-leaders who desire to enhance their skills in the Anglican Choral Tradition. Led by expert veteran church musicians, participants receive one-on-one and small group instruction designed to strengthen their effectiveness in teaching faith through music.

This year's daily plenary addresses will be given by world-renowned author and former Director of the Music Degree Program at St. Olaf College and Visiting Professor at the Yale Institute of Sacred Music, Dr. Paul Westermeyer.

Participants can select from one of four tracks. Limited Space is available.
