

NASHOTAH HOUSE

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

MASTER OF PASTORAL MINISTRY (MPM)

Formed for Ministry

The Master of Pastoral Ministry (MPM) is a first professional theological degree, especially suited to those pursuing lay or ordained ministry in an Episcopal or Anglican parish context, and who have commitments (i.e. work, family, church, etc.) that prevent them from living at Nashotah House. The MPM is normally completed in three-and-a-half years. The degree offers courses in areas of competency required for ordination in the Episcopal Church, the Anglican Church in North America, and other continuing Anglican bodies. This degree also meets the requirements to be classified by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) as an MDiv degree.

Program Highlights

- Hybrid-distance format
- In the Hybrid-Distance program, students attend four one-week sessions on campus each year (late-July, early-November, mid-January, mid-April) to take up residence on our historic lakeside campus for lectures, twice-daily worship, meals eaten in community, and evenings for study and/or fellowship
- Supervised field education, in a student's local context
- Access to all Frances Donaldson Library resources: 110,000 print volumes, 50,000 e-books, and millions of digital journal articles
- Preparation for General Ordination Exams
